WHY ASK WHY ??

You guys are nothin' but a bunch of lazy, inconsiderate, selfish, greedy, slack-jawed weenies!! There...I said it!! I feel better!! But it won't change a thing, will it??

It could be said in another way. This reporter, objectively evaluating the circumstances and the situation, would say....."Your commitment to a personal life for yourselves SUCKS!!"

- * Why are you so soft in the middle when the rest of your life is so hard?
- * Why are you so short on attention, when your nights are so long?
- * Why is makin' a commitment to the 18th Annual Fishin' Mission harder than puttin' your elbow in your ear?

Why ask why? Let me embellish....

Not too long ago, sparing no expense (okay, so it was some paper, an envelope, a 29 cent stamp, and a little labor) the Fishin' Mission Commission distributed it's first "Journal" for this year...clearly TWO (2) months in advance!!

The objective....stir up interest and commitment to the upcoming 18th Annual Fishin' Mission. The results....really SUCKED !!

Tell us the truth....confess...

- * You didn't have $35.00!
- * You had the $35, but with alimony, child support, blah, blah, blah!
- * You hate Rugby Shirts!
- * You like Rugby Shirts, but not for Fishin'!
- * You just don't care!
- * All the above!

We've tried intimidation, embarassment, strong-arming, and hazing..... do we have to stoop to diggin' out old photos from the archived "Fishin' Mission Dirt Files" to get you motivated ??

Don't think for a moment that we're through with this issue...we're not about to let you off with a subtle warning. Some of you are already Repeat Offenders !! If you have the guts, turn the page for some more grief...

You should all (or almost all) be feeling a little guilty by now....after all, of the EIGHTY (80) newsletters that were mailed, the commission received as many back for "bum" addresses as they received back as responses ---- FOUR !!! Most embarrassing was that the very first response...check included...was from Rick Rockel at Ken's!! Thanks to Rick, and Red, Wild Bill, and even O.D. for takin' the minute or so required to respond!! The rest of you guys are DOGS!!

Well...What Now, You Say ??

No sense cryin' over spilled beer! We obviously need to move to "PLAN B", which is less expensive, has more options, and is hopefully more in tune with the style in which you're accustomed!!

With serious assistance from Little Tommy Roberts (LTR?), we are now offering Hanes "Beefy-T" T-Shirts.....short sleeves, with pockets... Fishin' Mission logo on the back and the front pocket... for $10.00 each! LTR and Walkbucks, as the official commission, hold exclusive rights to the colors!! Take the chance!! Won't the surprise be worth it??

In addition, we plan to offer "Coolie" Cups....the stylish way to keep your brewskie cold!! These are the foam-type..not styrie! We will have the Fishin' Mission logo on the cups, AND we are also going to list all attendees who buy cups right on the cups! Bitchin' huh? Kinda like a rock concert?? Well maybe that's stretchin' it!

In any case....NOW'S YOUR CHANCE!! The order form is attached, and must be received at Fishin' Mission Headquarters by 5/15/91!! DO IT NOW !! This time the deadline is real...DON'T MISS OUT!!

Recent Updates and Reports

Only a few weeks ago, Deits was talkin' proud that even his anniversary wouldn't stop him....now he's whinin' about some VISA meeting. Think the Wright man will show if Brady J's??

There will even be a THIRD "Journal" this year (around May 25th) and we hope to have "live" reports from Hands of a Man and LTR on Opening Day action!!

Red has again assured us that video capability will be available, even in camp.....so,don't forget to bring all your favorite "Disney" films!!

If anyone has heard from (and is willing to talk about it) from Les Hilton, Steve Doyle, or Captain K - let us know. They were the "bum" addresses, and they didn't get the "Journal"!!

Other "kinda sorta" commitments recently came from Country Joe, Woody, and Boone (sure, we believe him). Response to this Journal will tell!

More information will be included in the next edition regarding the dinner plans for Sunday Night!! Stay tuned and save your money!!

THE 18TH ANNUAL WILL BE HOTTER THAN GEORGIA ASPHALT!!! DON'T MISS IT!!
